But the Muse of History asketh: 1s the labor truly done? Is it true the captive basketh In the light of Freedom's sun? Are the shackles truly broken, Or but changed to other form? Has the nation honest spoken, Or but cringed to 'scape the storm?

Vain the loss of perished treasure, Vain the homestead's vacant chair, Vain the blood in copious measure, And the death shriek on the air; Vain the widow's moans of sorrow, Vain the orphan's teardrops bright, If the Freedmen stand to-morrow, Robbed of but a single right.

We therefore have only ourselves to blame. To be sure, we did not anticipate the present contingency,

From my earliest hour to the present day, I have looked upon the oppression of men as a crime. I have no doubt for this great crime our brothers and friends and children now lie in bloody graves. I had hoped that the blood of half million of our citizens, and the expenditure of five millions of money would have induced the destroying angel to put up his sword. We have not yet done justice to the oppressed race. We have not gone as far as the Emperor of Russia when he ordered freedmen of thousands of his oppressed people and endowed them with the right of citizenship. We have been too much governed by our prejudices. We have listened too much to those whose cry is "Negro Equality"-"Nigger"—"Nigger"—"Nigger!"— We are influenced too much by those persons from foreign lands who, while in search of freedom, deny that blessed boon to those who are their equals. i may be superstitious, but I look around and ask myself: Why are we now afflicted? A SOLVENT.

Some years ago, a wealthy "culled ousson" arrived at New York from abroad. A merchant had been in business connected with him for several years, and from that business connection had realized a fortune, and felt that he must treat him kindly. When Sunday came, he invited him to go to church with him. He went, and the merchant took him into his own pew, near the pulpit. There was a promit nent member of the church near the merchant, who saw this with great amazement. He could not be mistak. en; it was a genuine "nigger" and not a counterfeit. The 300,000 Union defenders from the South who stood in the ranks of the Union army, send greeting to the brave veterans of the North through our representative delegates to the Convention of the Southern Unionists. We send a hearty invitation for our comrades in a common cause to meet us on this spot made sacred to liberty. Come me come all! Come in the uniform of blue! There is a spot of earth supremely blest A dearer, sweeter spot than all the rest, Where man, creation's tyrant, casts aside His sword and sceptre, pageantry and pride, While in his softened look benignly blend The sire, the son, the husband, father, friend. Here woman reigns; the mother, daughter, wife, Strews with fresh flowers the narrow way of life; In the clear heaven of her delightful eye, An angel guard of loves and graces lie; Around her knees domestic duties mee And fireside pleasures gambol at her feet.

How desirable then, that we should surround this home by all that can render it attractive and beautiful. Let it look neat and tidy externally. Within let the walls be adorned with paintings. books, and in addition, to keep our Erie branch road, via Attica, Warsaw children from roaming abroad for a- &c., to Cateseraga, and thence by musement and pleasure, put our invention to the stretch to furnish playscroquet, ten pin alley if we can afford it, ball games; and, for winter-music chequers, chess, backgammon, &c .-The silly man that frames excuses to spend his evenings abroad, in saloons, or even better places as a constant thing, wrongs himself and wrongs her richly. One of the three falls was in and those pledges of affection whom he has most solemnly sworn to cherish and love. Choose ye such sources of pleasure if ye will, but be ours the higher, the more ennobling, the sanctifying pleasures of home, "sweet home."

We have noted "Our Home" as not simply a Water Cure, but a Sun Cure. Around the Home no shade trees are permitted. The King of day has full play and is glorified. The rooms are all located so that in some portion of the day they may each receive his genial and reviving visits. A hygienist is never afraid of the sun. Sun stroke has no terror for him. He counts the sun his ally and friend. On a pleasant day the visitor can behold the grassy plat around the Home covered with the sick in a recumbent posture, on their blankets, they lie for hours, the glorious rays of the sun playing upon them .-If one wishes to get in the shade, it is easy to do so, for besides the delightful walks threading the hillside, there are some majestic forest kings that stand alone, and beneath whose wide spreading branches one can read or sweetly sleep, or in dreamy wakefulness while the hours away. The favorite walks are to Paradise Gate, Boulder Wood, and up the hill by meandering paths amid the thick forest to the All Healing Spring. There are resting places—seats at intervals to rest the weary. And there what a scene ravishes the beholder! Almost at his feet the village of Dansville, the lovely valley, and away beyond, skirting the horizon, the distant hills.

Aside from the able Chief of the Institution, there are physicians who wo'd rank well in their profession anywhere. Dr. Hurd ranks No. 1. Dr. James Jackson is a son of James C. Henceforth paying more implicit obedience to the laws of God written on their bodies, they will atone somewhat for the past, of the State Board of Education, Edand live better and happier lives. SOLDIERS:

Mark the President's hypocrisy .-He claims to be your friend. How?-By purchasing a few generals by offices in his gift. Thus he hopes to entrap your votes. Congress passed a bill giving you extra bounties, and appropriated the money. The money is in the treasury. But the President, in order to make political capital and charge the delay upon Congress, withholds it. These bounties are only due to privates and non-commissioned officers. Gens. Custer, Morrow, Wilcox, having fat offices from the government, don't lose a cent by the delay.— You are entitled to it immediately, and it is meanness to withhold it. The President mutilated Gen. Sheridan's dispatches about New Orleans to keep the truth from the people. He does not hesitate to injure the character of a gallant soldier for the sake of a paltry political advantage to himself. It does seem as if this scoundrel by the grace of the assassin President, had reached the lowest depth of shame. But we

TURNING THE TABLES.

Our readers will remember what great shouts and rejoicings there were at the Philadelphia traitor Convention over the election of a democratic membor of Congress from Colorado. It turns out that the Republican candidate is elected. Mr. Doolittle, in announcing the then supposed Bread and Butter victory to the Convention, ominously for the democracy and the Johnsonites, declared that the result in Colorado was the "response to the call for the Convention." That "response" ocratic majorities now returning heavy medical Republican majorities. Other Most all the Grocers have it. adical Republican majorities. UNFAIR COMPLAINTS.

Some of our Democratic friends, realdent. Now, friends, can you ask us to will supersede and run out every othgive quarter to a man whom we sincerely believe to be as vile a traitor as ever lived? When Johnson was supposed to be with us, did we refrain from denouncing his disgraceful inauguration spree? Some of our Republican friends complained then-thought we ought to cover up his sins. We thought not. We shall never cease unmasking this debauchee and traitor until by the overwhelming voice of the people he is hurled from his position.

THE dramatic spectacle of Massachusetts and South Carolina marching armin arm into the Philadelpha Convention has been generally ascribed to the management of Doolittle, Raymond Randall. This is a mistake. The suggestion of coupling Masschusetts and South Carolina together was made by President Johnson himself, in a speech delivered in the Senate, in February, 1861, as follows:

"I do not intend to be invidious, but I have sometimes thought it would be a comfort if Massachuseus and South Car-olina could be chained together as the Siames twins, separated from the continent, and taken out to some remote and secluded part of the ocean, and there fast anchored, to be washed by the waves and to be cooled by the winds, and after they had been kept there a sufficient ength of time, the people of the United States might entertain the idea of taking them back."

Massachusetts and South Carolina having been chained together in Convention, it now only remains for the people to carry the rest of the suggestion, by overwhelming the chained Johnsonites of the two States under the waves of the great ocean of patriotism. After they have been kept under long enough to repent and cool, they may be taken back into loyal company.

SPECIAL NOTICES,

REASONS WHY

The AMERICAN WATCH, made at Waltnam, Mass. is the best .-

It is made on the best principle. Its frame s composed of solid plates. No jar can interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly

At the begining of our enterprise, more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low-priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign impositions—the refnse of foreign factories which are entirely unsaleable at home and perfectly worthless everywhere.

How well we have accomplished this may be understood from the fact, that after so many years of public trial, we now make more than half of all the watches sold in the United States, and that no others have given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with in-creased facilties for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watch es of the very highest grade known to chronometry, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main buildings expressibly for this hypers of our business and have 6:35 ly for this branco of our business, and have 7:00 filled it with the best workmen in our service, New machines and applicants have been constructed, which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest import ed chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for less money than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the same money our product is incomparably superior. all our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warrented and his warrantee is good at all times against us or agents in all parts of the world.

Caution.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecute ROBBINS & APPLETON,

He had become the victim of a habit, the mere allusion to which causes a shudder, and after years of suffering and doctoring gave up all hopes of recovery. He wished to marry, and was dearly beloved by as sweet a girl as ever lisped words of affection, but he was fearful nervous, and prostrated.
